WOMEN WELLNESS PROGRAMS

Enables you to handle your stress, workplace issues emotional and relationship problems.

This is a specially designed Program for women development. Women in India unlike in the developed countries have social pressures, which can push them to a breaking point in life. They have to balance work, family and children some times expectations of the elder family members. This can put a lot of mental pressure, which can make them under performers and apathetic.

W+ is a series of sessions for women who want to stay healthy, fit and smart. Offered as discussions and interactions with experts, W+ gives you enormous clarity on every issue you may have - your emotional problems, stress, workplace issues, and relationship problems.

Taking part in Saamartya's W+ one-to-one sessions can remove clutters in your approach and energize you. You glow with confidence, enthusiasm, and energy, and go back to your own world as a new person.
